The event will have 5 categories: MALE, FEMALE, MIXED, VETS and SOLO. Registration, gear and bike checks, and the pasta party will be on Saturday the 12th August at the White House Farm in Builth Wells. The first ride will be started early on Sunday morning (13th August 2006) from the farm. All riders have to register and get their gear and their bikes checked on Saturday (12th August 2006) between 12 pm (noon) and 8pm.

The entry fee of £ 400 per rider includes:

Ride entry, free breakfast, lunch and dinner, free usage of service stations, free luggage and tent transport from location to location, finishing Jersey, free course material, free usage of facilities, free camping at all stage locations starting with Saturday night at the White House Farm in Builth and finishing with the following Saturday night at the same location, free parking for the week (at your own risk) and mega event goodie holdall which will travel with you for the whole duration. The holdall will be given out to the competitors at signing on and will be the only piece of luggage that we will be able to transport from stage to stage. Please make sure that your clothes and sleeping equipment will fit into it.

Entries will be handled on a first come first served basis and the event is strictly limited to 300 riders i.e.

We welcome families and friends to accompany the TransWales with mobile homes and caravans but would be grateful to be notified of the size of vehicle and number of extra people we have to expect at the various locations so that we can make sure we have enough space for everyone.

To enter the event and to get your entry confirmed and guaranteed you have to send this entry form together with the cheque (bank transfer possible – please ask for details) of £ 400 per team rider in to the address below. Please make cheques payable to MOUNTAIN BIKE EVENTS LTD and send together with this entry forms to MOUNTAIN BIKE EVENTS LTD, 3 Belmont Road, Brislington, Bristol, BS4 3PB (Please put your name and address on the back of the cheque). Only after we have received entry form and payment will we be able to confirm your entry by returning your confirmation email with your start number. Please make sure you read and understand the event declaration and that you fill in all the details. Please also make sure that you give us a contact telephone number (if possible your personal mobile – also important for the event itself) and a correct and legible email address.
